(she/her)

ARTIST BIO

Güner Künier was born in Izmir, Turkey. Her family moved to Germany in the early 90s. She began playing guitar at 10 years of age, and started playing in bands and organizing shows at 13. Then, because of her cultural background, she left music behind. 10 years later, with a master's degree in economics and engineering and some work experience, she decided to make a drastic change and dedicate herself to art and music and moves to Berlin. During this time, she has released live videos, music videos, an EP and played many live shows. In December 2022 she releases her debut album "Aşk" (turkish for "Love").

PRESS TEXT

Güner Künier is deploying her voice over old school and industrial drums infused with lo-fi guitar and synthesizer sounds. Her debut album also invokes a psychedelic 70s vibe, although it's been adapted for the present day. You'll also find some synthwave tracks and Turkish lyrics in there. It features a great mix of genres which leads to a unique style. Her stunning live performances over the past few years have also sent strong and promising signals.

lofi - synthwave - post-punk - psychedelic - turkish
